Date of publication and production of master: 1975

Series: The purpose of this series is to make available those catalogues that have lasting interest through their text or their illustrations. Catalogues and cumulations of titles in the series are available from the publishers

Serial numbers: Each title is given a seven-figure serial number in the top right hand corner of the microfiche title strip. This is an accession number. The first figure indicates the number of the list in which the title first appears; the first three-figure group signifies the gallery or museum; the second three-figure group the accession number for that title.

Some Contemporary British Sculpture

An exhibition arranged by the Norwich 1956 Exhibition Committee in conjunction with the Aldeburgh Festival

Foreword

This exhibition was arranged by Mr David Carr and the Norwich 1956 Exhibition Committee, of which he is a member, in conjunction with the Aldeburgh Festival. It was first shown in the garden of Red House, Aldeburgh, by courtesy of Mrs Mary Potter, from June 16 to 24. Arrangements were also made to show the exhibition in the forecourt of the Castle Museum, Norwich, and the Arts Council welcomed the opportunity to sponsor this showing and four others elsewhere. Several of the works exhibited at Aldeburgh had to be withdrawn but in most cases others have been substituted.

The exhibition contains works by well-known sculptors and also a number by younger and lesser known artists, several of whom are working in East Anglia.
